4. Language Structure

Identify language structures in the text that are unfamiliar and/or critical to the understanding of the story.

5. Setting Purpose and Making Connections

Connections Related to Key Concepts

Plan your focus concept and questions to activate predicting, which will help you set the purpose for reading the book.

During Reading

6. Checking for Understanding

Consider predetermined points to stop and check for understanding. This could include linking to prior knowledge, linking to personal experiences, linking to other texts, etc.

7. Teaching Vocabulary

Consider vocabulary words that would best be taught or discussed during the context of the text.

©2004 Kansas Reading Academy