Tell yourself, “I need to question the author and predict where the author is going.”

- Read the passage and identify clues that make you question the author.
- Ask yourself good questions.
- Create Predictions

- Review what you know and read on.
- Evaluate the answers
- Keep questions and predictions in mind as you read.